KEROSENE OIL.
This celebrated brand of Kerosene, manufactured by the Chesebrough Manufacturing Company (the manufacturers of Vaseline) is without doubt the best in this Market. It is perfectly pure, gives a brilliant light, and is absolutely free from that disagreeable odour most kerosene has.
The U. S. Government requires that no Oil be sold under a fire-test of 115°; this is 150°, it is therefore perfectly safe.
As such it is recommended, and families wishing to burn a really good Oil, cannot do better than send for a sample to Miss Lilian Lovelight's Letter.

Dear Susy, your nice little note came to hand,
A breath of fresh air in a sun-stricken land;
How gay and delightful existence must be,
Among other questions you ask me, my dear,
(For everything NEW comes to air itself here)
Is all that I know, or have heard, or have seen,
Of the wonderful jelly they call VASELINE.
So I've studied it up, as the college boys say,
And send the result without further delay;
That queer and mysterious oil that is found,
A mile or two down in the rocks under ground.
But purified, scented, and fit for a queen.
Is the germ of that blessing to man, VASELINE;
I'm in LOVE with it, Susy, as doubtless you see;
As YOU (when I tell you its virtues) will be.
I fear, dearest Susy, you'll think it not true,
If I tell you the wonderful things it can do;
Like a veil of soft satin it renders the hair,
And the skin like a lily makes brilliant and fair.
It conquers neuralgia, coughing and croup,
Sore throat and dyptheria kills at a swoop:
While for cuts and eruptions there never was seen,
Or for burns, such a treasure as pure VASELINE
And now, Susy dear, it is time to go dress,
[I will send you some Vaseline up by express]
Then the hearts of the beaux you will certainly win,
You'll be Lovely without as you're Healthy within.

"YOUNG IRELAND"

Although another generation has sprung up since 1848, the events which Sir Chas. Gavan Duffy so lucidly records in this work have really lost nothing of their interest for the majority of readers. The interlude is no doubt long; men, times, politics, parties and even principles have changed since the day Duffy sat under the spreading oak in the Phœnix Park with Thomas Davis, arranging for the starting of the Nation. Yet there is such a winning sincerity in the author's style, a plaintive truthfulness in all he records, that for our fellow-countrymen the work will possess more interest than the best novel of the period, and we follow the thread of his tale and the struggles of his party with as much zest as if the events were of to-day, and the men he sketches still amongst us.

Everything that Sir Charles narrates, every scene that he depicts is so vivid and so life-like that we thought as we read through this delightful book that we were revisiting the scenes of early youth. The Four Courts, the Park, College Green, the quays, Merrion Square, Stephens Green, Baggot Street, where poor Davis died, Abbey Street where the cradle of the Nation was first rocked; through all these places he leads us and interperses them with history, anecdote and the most agreeable local sketches.

His bird's eye view of Irish History is one of the most remarkable efforts of his great ability; it is not only a charge against the political errors and crimes of British statesmen, but an apology for the present terrible state of affairs in Ireland.

Our invitation to read this book is not limited to Irishmen—we ask Englishmen, Scotchmen, Americans, and all readers of English, to study it. Sir Charles exaggerates nothing, and there is a pungency in his reflective remarks which proves what, at the table of a Dublin banker, a few years ago, we asserted: that the judgment of a British subject, who has travelled and lived in foreign lands is oftentimes superior on home politics to that of a Beaconsfield or a Gladstone.

With all his invaluable Australian experience Sir Charles deals with the men, the cause and the principles of 1848. We never read a book that pleased us more or gave us greater satisfaction. Had the men of 1848 succeeded, the state of Ireland would, indeed, be far different from what it is to-day. The press of England, the statesmen of England and the thinkers of England now admit this, and it would fill every column of our paper to publish the welcome of favourable criticism which this Irish novel of an Australian ex-Premier has received from the press of Great Britain and Ireland.

We offer no apology for giving the following lengthy extract from this prize work, since we believe it will be read with infinitely greater interest than the trial of Guiteau or other trashy and oftentimes repulsive matter which we are compelled to put in our columns:—

The condition of the two classes who live by agriculture furnished a singular contrast. The great proprietors were two or three hundred, the heirs of the Undertakers, for the most part, and Absentees; the mass of the country was owned by a couple of thousand others, who lived in splendour, and even profusion; and for these the peasant ploughed, sowed, tended, and reaped a harvest which he never shared. Rent in other countries, means the surplus after the farmer has been liberally paid for his skill and labour; in Ireland it meant the whole produce of the soil except a potato-pit. If the farmer strove for more, his master knew how to bring him to speedy submission. He could carry away his implements of trade by the law of distress, or rob him of his sole pursuit in life by the law of eviction. He could, and habitually did, seize the stools and pots in his miserable cabin, the blanket that sheltered his children, the cow that gave them nourishment. There were just and humane landlords, men who performed the duties which their position imposed, and did not exaggerate its rights; but they were a small minority. The mild Berkeley, in his day, spoke of certain Irish proprietors as 'vultures with iron bowels;' and landlords of this type were still plentiful. There was nowhere in Europe a propertied class who did so little for the people and took so much from them. The productive power of an estate was often doubled and quadrupled by the industry of the farmers; and its rental rose accordingly. In later times rents shot up with war prices, with protection, with the system con acre (under which small patches were let at an exorbitant rate to labourers to grow potatoes), when any of these stimulants was withdrawn they did not come down. Rents impossible to be paid were kept on the books of an estate, and arrears duly recorded to hold the tenant in perpetual subjection. For in addition to his labour the landlord required his vote and various menial services. The Lady Bountiful of the parish—for women are more unfeeling and inconsiderate in their exactions than men—often required the children to be sent to a proselytizing school, on pain of immediate ejectment. O'Connell frequently demanded how they would like to have it made compulsory on them to send their children to be educated at Maynooth on pain of forfeiting their estates? But they regarded the absurd comparison with proper contempt. The food of the peasant was potatoes, with a little milk or salt; flesh-meat he rarely tasted, except when he went as a harvest labourer to England, 'to earn the rent.' The country was famous for the production of butter, and the growth of beef and mutton, and especially of pork; but butter, beef, mutton, or pork was nearly as unknown as an article of diet among the peasantry as among the Hindoos. Of this food, such as it was, there was rarely enough. Famines were frequent, and every other year destitution killed a crowd of peasants. Sometimes they tortured serfs rose in nocturnal jacquerie against the system; and then a cry of 'rebellion' was raised, and England was assured that these intractable barbarians were again (as the indictment always charged) 'levying war against the King's Majesty.' There were indeed causes enough for national disaffection, but of these the poor peasant knew nothing; he was contending for so much miserable food as would save his children from starvation. There were sometimes barbarous agrarian murders—murders of agents and bailiffs chiefly, but occasionally of landlords. It would be shameful to forget that these savage crimes were often the result of savage provocation. Lord Melbourne (when Chief Secretary for Ireland) uttered a judgment on one victim which unhappily might stand for many of his class. 'If one-half of what is told me of him be true,' he wrote, 'and it comes from many different quarters, if he had forty thousand lives there would have been no wonder if they had been all taken.' The peasants often sympathised with these crimes—a fact painful and horrible to contemplate; but let us remember that all England went into a delirium of joy when the knife of Fulton struck down the favourite of Charles I.: for to hate their enemies is the human instinct which religion finds it hardest to control. The agricultural labourer was in a still worse condition than the farmer. Wages in Ireland in the reign of Queen Victoria was often lower than it had been in England in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Tipperary had had the reputation of being an insubordinate county; the Railway Commission Report of the state of the labourers at this time in Tipperary may perhaps help to explain the fact. 'They go through the fields and gather the wild weeds, they boil them with salt, and they live on them without even a potato to eat along with them.' It is charged that the Irish peasant was thriftless and ignorant. He was not free from the faults slavery and misery engender; how could he be indeed? It must be admitted that he was not trained in the minor morals of order and foresight, and for education had been merely taught to sign his name and read his prayer-book. But his grandfather was a Papist who was liable to be transported if he learned the multiplication-table; his father was not permitted to possess landed property, arms, or the franchise; and in his own day there were no public schools at which his religion and his race were not bywords of scorn.

THE ARGENTINE FLEET.

The increase of naval armaments in South America is quite remarkable. Of late years Chile, Brazil and this country have been supplying the large builders of war-ships with successive orders that attracted the notice of the British press. The general type of those warships has been that of the swift corvette and second class ironclad turret-ship, like the Almirante Brown, the Blanco Encalada, Huascar, Solimoes, etc. Brazil has the most numerous, Chile the most efficient fleet; the Argentine Republic has only one really efficient war-vessel, the Almirante Brown; the Andes, Plata, and gunboats do not represent much. The great defect of the Argentine navy consists in the want of able seamen. It is easier to make a lawyer out of an Argentine than a sailor; others may study the ethnological motives, but the fact stands that up to the present all efforts in this line have been crowned with little success.

The Argentine Government is at present considering the best means to make good sailors, and if we are to believe reports, some active measures are contemplated in this respect. The river is a poor school for sailors, and the spirit of old Brown will never revive in the idle anchorage of Los Pozos or at Punta Lara. All the war-vessels must be sent to sea; the salt water must give the men the necessary stamina, and hardships must nurse them to continued action and motion. The Republic has an immense coast, and a rough sea beats on it: this is the field of action for the fleet.

Puerto Deseado, Santa Cruz, Puerto Roca, Chubut, San Antonio, Patagones, San Blas, are all naval stations close at hand, where the war-vessels might enter, the officers could study and use as a port of refuge in case of danger. The Minister of War, Dr. Victorica, views the matter in this light, and intends even sending the vessels to cruise in the Pacific and on the coast of Brazil. If carried into effect, the public will then believe, and only then, that we have sailors to man the ships. According to the new turn of affairs in the Naval office, the vessels will thus be distributed:

The steel corvette Almirante Brown will be ordered to Valparaiso, where the Chilians will have ample opportunity to visit and admire her; there is little doubt that she and the American Minister and Nature settled the Patagonian Question.

The Parana will be sent to Callao. This vessel is one of the best in the Argentine navy and one of the cheapest: she is a fast cruiser and is ably commanded by Colonel Laserre, who has the spirit of Jean Bart in him. She is the only vessel, with the Villarino, that has periodically cruised in the South.

The Uruguay will also be ordered to some station on the Pacific; the only thing we know about the Uruguay is that she carries a muzzle-loader of 600 lbs calibre.

The Andes goes to ports on the Brazilian coast. The new double keels have steadied this turret ship, built on the Clyde and pronounced a first class ironclad; she is of the same build as the Brazilian Savary or Solimoes, but she is more intended for river than for ocean service. The Brazilians have ordered fresh ironclads in England, and on the arrival of same, they will possess the strongest fleet in this hemisphere.

The El Plata, brought out by Captain Royse, so well known to many of our readers, goes to Montevideo, a favorite station of the ironclad in question, since the last year.

It is reported that the Constitucion will be ordered up rivers to Cuyaba in Matto Grosso. She will never get up to the latter place, since she draws too much water, but she may manage to arrive at Curumba.

The Pilcomayo will be sent up the Uruguay to Concordia, where she is at present on a hydrographical expedition. It appears that there is a project on foot to blow the rapids out of the river with dynamite and torpedoes; at all events something may yet be done to facilitate navigation up that river.

The torpedo department will remain in the Parana, and there are probabilities of seeing the establishment of a torpedo school, where youths will be taught to handle and fire off those dangerous machines. The reminiscences of the unfortunate Fulminante are yet fresh and we devontly hope that there will be no repetition of the tragedy. The Maipu will remain here. She is such a fine steamer that it would be a pity to let her run the risk of being blown up, and the Whitehead cigars might be removed from her and deposited in Zarate.

The Bermejo, under her gallant commander Howard, will remain in Bahia Blanca until the surveys and buoying of that harbor are finished She then starts to San Blas, where the channel will be surveyed and buoys placed along. Then the Rio Negro bar will be a thing of the past for large vessels, as they can enter San Blas instead, and discharge alongside the estancia house.

The programme of the Naval office is a good one, and when carried out all will unanimously applaud the reform in the squadron. It is badly wanted, and the sooner it is effected, the better.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The French mail steamer Senegale entered Montevideo yesterday. Mails up this morning. The papers report further arrests in Ireland. Terrible gale in the Channel. German official papers recommend the restoration of Rome to the Pope, with territory to guarantee his independence. Holy War against France proclaimed at Tangiers. Central American republics at the old game.

The Judicial muddle was worse than ever yesterday, owing to the 'accordata' of the Prov. Supreme Court. The matter is getting serious, and should be settled at once by a decisive step of the Minister of Justice.

The heat on Sunday and yesterday was truly terrific. The mild dash of rain and thunder on Sunday afternoon made the evening just bearable, but it was warmer than ever yesterday.

The latest about the Exhibition building is that it is now admitted that it cannot possibly be finished by the 15th prox, but that the resolution to open it officially on that day, whether finished or not, will be adhered to, 'coute que coute.' This would be a tremendous blunder. What earthly object can there be in having it a fortnight, or even a month, sooner or a month later. March will be a far cooler and pleasanter month than February, and the inauguration in a half-finished building, and with the sections in a similar plight, will make the very worst impressions at home and abroad. If it be a fact that the builders now see that the building cannot be finished in time, the Committee should at once postpone the inauguration till March 15th. We see in our useful colleague, the Industrial, that there are now only 173 men at work on the building. The last time we glanced at the list the figure was over 250.

'The clink of hammers closing rivets up,' or rather the clink of glasses tossing Cliquot down, in preparation for Carnival, was heard on Sunday night, when the 'comparsa' known as 'High Life' gave a grand supper to selves and friends, and discussed the coming Saturnalia. The fun and frolic continued till a late hour.

A dreadful story of illicit love and suicide comes from Rosario. We spare our readers all but the salient details. Mr. P—— manager of an estancia near the town, a married man aged 30, fell madly in love with Miss B——, daughter of his employer, and his guilty passion was returned. The matter was no secret and caused keen distress in both families, especially to P's injured wife. On New Year's night the unfortunate couple disappeared, the girl leaving a brief note for her mother stating that she had fled with P. All search for the fugitives proved vain until last Saturday morning, when a peon who was chasing a fox that had snapped up a chicken suddenly came across two corpses in an 'alfalfar.' Both, especially the man's, were half-eaten by wild dogs and other animals, nevertheless, they were recognised as those of Miss B. and her doubly guilty lover. Further examination showed that he had first put a bullet through her right temple and then another through his own heart. It is a sickening tale, such as is found in the low cheap novels with which the country is inundated, and, for all that can be known, perhaps the perusal of these abominable publications may have led directly or indirectly to this truly repulsive tragedy.

The Rosario papers cry out that there is a great scarcity of labour up there just now, especially in the carpenter and bricklayer line.

Typographical pastry is a thing abhorred by editors, publishers and printers alike. Nevertheless, circumstances alter cases, and on Saturday the printers of our highly-esteemed colleague, La Protesta, went in for a vigorous protest, which assumed the form of smashing everything in the office and turning the type into a 'pie' that it will take a month to digest.

A new lottery trick was played off last week on a Basque who bought a whole ticket in the Montevidean Drawing. On the evening of the drawing a man from the office where he had purchased the ticket went to him with the news that his number had won 1000 pats. which he then and there paid to the lucky 'lechero' and got the ticket. Next day it turned out that the milkman's ticket had won the big prize, 16,000 pats, and that he had been cleverly 'done'. We believe the police have laid hands on the culprit.

The Alsina statue Committee held a meeting yesterday. Some people say it was to discuss the expediency of getting that precious work of art pulled down and recast. Not knowing, we cannot say.

An unpleasant termination was put to a wedding party in Mercedes (over the water) last week. When asked by the clergyman the usual question. 'Wilt thou take this woman' etc, the ungallant bridegroom answered 'No!' Not if she were decked from top to toe in diamonds'. The bride fainted, the bridesmaids screamed, the mother-in-law apparent groaned, and the two 'best men' hurried the bridegroom out of the church and kicked him into the middle of next week.

The 'dependientes' of Montevideo have initiated a vigorous Sunday Closing movement, and we wish the them most complete success.

Dr. Plaza, ex-Finance Minister, continues to recover gradually from his recent severe illness. The crowds of callers at his house during his sickness show that his countrymen have not forgotten the supreme service he did the nation in pulling its financial honour safely through the crisis. Dr. Plaza is a young man and his services will be again required, whether in fair weather or foul and the country may well rejoice at his recovery. He is a host in himself—a financial Imperial Guard in reserve for emergencies.

We publish in our Supplement the report of the last meeting of the London and River Plate Bank shareholders; want of space crowded it out till to day. Mr Drabble's speech sketches a magnificent future for this excellently managed concern.

Cordoba has already despatched 20 big cases full of articles for the Exhibition. It is most unjust to say that the Cordobeses are incurably somnolent; they sleep a good deal, 'c'est vrai', but always with one eye half open. As regards the Exhibition, they are almost the first in the field. We are curious to know if any of the articles of our once flourishing museum, which we sent to the Cordoba Exhibition and never saw since (although we won a prize) have come down again in any corners of the 20 big cases.

A Mothers-in-law's Club has been formed in New York. At the meeting for approval of the statutes, it was proposed, seconded and carried unanimously, that the penalty of death be inflicted summarily on the son in law of any member who is not 'as meek as a mouse' in her presence. Several other equally stringent rules were passed to secure the Rights of mothers-in-law. Ladies, your most obedient.

Dr Peter Newkirk, who died in Goya last week, was the worthy physician who had lived so many years in this country and had so many friends here. Dr Moses, his brother who survives, is a younger man and has only been a few years in this country. Some years ago the deceased doctor sent us a present of a beautiful Paraguayan tiger which we kept for a time chained in Standard Court: but the animal got loose one summer evening and went for a stroll down Calle San Martin. He looked like tasting the first policeman he met, but didn't: then he sniffed at a couple of lawyers, but did not like them either, and was making for an Italian 'naranjero,' when Mr Jose Rodriguez, then of our printing staff, a countryman of the tiger, rushed gallantly out with a big stick, seized the chain and had the brute run in and tied up again in the twinkling of an eye. That tiger is now in the Zoological Gardens of Antwerp.

We call attention to an advertizement from the Gum (not Gun) Club in another column. Stick to it gentlemen!

We feel much pleasure in saluting our distinguished colleague the Progreso of Cordoba on its 15th anniversary.

Red and Black Locusts have appeared in the quintas at Dolores and are eating up everything. 'Rouge et Noir.' Ominous colors.

A number of 'jovenes distinguidos are 'running' the Variedades Theatre during the masquerade ball season. As a consequence, it was crowded on Saturday and Sunday nights with High Can-can Life.

We received yesterday another issue of Dr Zeballos's charming work 'Descripcion Amena de la Republica Argentina.' We always look out for this publication with great interest.

Mr. R. Heimendahl, Austro-Hungarian Consul, has opened a subscription for the relief of the Vienna sufferers. Offerings can be sent to the Consulate, 193 Rivadavia.

We hope the ill luck which some people have fastened on the Continental Exhibition is not about to burst out again. The vessel in which the French exhibits were about being embarked at Marseilles went to the bottom suddenly in a hurricane.

The performance at the Germania Club on Saturday night came off splendidly and was deservedly applauded. Everything in the theatrical line is well and cleverly managed by this Club, who spare neither pains nor expense to give their countrymen an enjoyable entertainment and foster and keep up the love of Fatherland. The attendance was large, and the piece given was warmly received. The 'ballet,' danced by children, had to be repeated. It was astonishing to see how cleverly and correctly the 'little ones' performed their part of the programme, and it reflects much credit on Sr. Giovanni, their talented instructor. The music was very good, under the direction of Herr Köppelmau, who has trained his band to a degree of first-rate excellence. He is a thorough musician, Dancing was kept up till a late or rather early hour, and all departed highly pleased at having passed a pleasant night.

In reference to the extremely crabbed article in the Nacional on Saturday evening, several subscribers and others who know Bahia Blanca well have called on us to say that everything we have written about that place is quite correct, as anybody who has ever been down there can prove.

The Chilians passed Sunday in commemorating the battles of Chorillos and Miraflores. The Special United States Envoy has remedied the blunder of poor Kilpatrick, and Santiago and Washington are as thick as ever.

A subscriber has handed us a crushing article from one of our English colleagues in Rio, on Bolivia, and her conduct during the war. Never have we seen a nation get such a dressing in a newspaper. The 'Bolivian Sketches,' of unfortunate memory, was a mere nothing compared with our Rio colleague's stinging remarks. The writer proposes that Bolivia be wiped from the map of South America and divided between Brazil, this country and Peru. The idea is not a bad one, and it would be a grand thing for the Bolivian people.

The usual annual squabble about what streets the Corso is to pass through in Carnival has commenced. The best proposal of all is up and down Rivadavia, which is a splendid, wide street from Callao to Plaza Once, and no narrower than the others from Plaza Victoria to Callao. The Corso from Plaza Lorea to the Retiro by Florida is too long; besides every soul in town has it off by heart and is sick of it. Let us have have a new route and something new in the way of decorations, in honour of the Exhibition.

Another Consejo de Educacion scandal was hinted at in yesterday's papers. Several Consejos along the Western Railway complain that sundry sums of money sent to them from time to time by the Consejo General have never reached them! Another kettle of 'pescado.'

The demand for gold was felt in the market to-day, but was only temporary. For cash 35,000 were sold at 25 05, but later on some lots were offering at this rate, and no buyers to be found. According to the payments, that have to be met, gold fluctuates between the par quotation and a premium of 5 cents. For end of February some 10,000 pats were secured at 25.15, a rather high premium.

Cedulas ruled dull in every Series. Series E was quoted to-day at 92, but a movement is on foot to drive the scrip down and sales were effected for end of February at 91. There is also a slight improvement in Series B., a little business having been done at 101, the last operations in this scrip were effected at 100⅞. Series A ruled weak; no cash sales were effected and some 2,000 were let go for to-morrow at 102½; in this Series the market closes 102½, sellers.

Very little business was done in National Bank Shares, the total operations of the official hours amounting only to 1,800 shares. The market as usual opened firm, when the bears entered the lists and drove prices down ½. The market, nevertheless, maintains very firm features, and a rising tendency of the stock is evident to all. Cash rates opened at 128½ and closed at 128; very little done, only 220 shares changed hands. Rates for end of the month opened at 129 and fell to 128½, closing at that figure. The tactics of last months are being renewed, and a speculation has sprung up for end of February, which influences rates for end of the present month; in this manner 800 shares were sold for end of February. The feeling in the market in general is hard and rising.

The sales at the ring were—

Gold on some days is felt scarce on the Bolsa; today a broker wanted to buy 45,000 and looked up and down for the money but no one had gold to sell. The Provincial Bank is absorbing all the gold in the market and lets go nothing, which is a downright blunder unless the Bank aims at cornering the market letting go a million pats when the rate is about 25.10. Exchange is now passed in paper, so that in reality there is very little gold coming on the market but the merchants say that the Provincial Bank should not hoard the gold but supply the market, as freely as the market supplies the bank with gold in exchange for paper.

The whole Bolsa talks about the proposed new branches of the Provincial Bank at Flores, Belgrano and Barracas; the mere object is to escape the double stamp but merchants consider the step 'infra dig' on the part of the bank, and the double stamp nuisance must indeed have assumed a serious shape when the bank board discusses such a step.

Mr A Leslie, the well-known plumber, has secured the contract for laying the waterpipes in Belgrano, 8000 metres; we congratulate Belgrano on Mr Leslie having obtained the contract.

The Toro for Patagones sails in the morning. The Villarino leaves on Sunday, Governor Alvaro Barros goes down in her to Viedma.

There are many complaints against the management of the Western Railway: there should be more passenger-carriages to Flores, since of late very many gentlemen have had to resign their seats to ladies and stand all the way, after a day's hard work. This is more especially the case with the 5½ p.m. train. We call the attention of the Railway Board to the matter.

Mr Blythe was welcomed on Change to-day from Rosario: he leaves to-night for Montevideo to catch the Britannia.

Mr Davison, who has recently come back from San Blas, leaves to-night for Montevideo on a bathing excursion.

Mr A S McNally has purchased two sq. leagues of land in the Media Luna at the rate of 130,000 m/cp. league. The land is next to that bought up lately by a large company, seller Dr Newberry.

Mr Goedecke of Rosario has received per s.s. Baltimore, a very fine heavy draught breeding horse from Bremen. Two of these fine animals were consigned to him, but one unfortunately died during the voyage. The breed is German from Hanover.

This was a real Monday in the Once, and very little was done in wools: the stand from under feeling continues and the 'artistas' look very glum. They shake their heads in anticipation of the effect that the heavy arrivals of wool will produce in Europe. It is calculated that the wool prices have fallen 5 and 6 m/c per arrobe since last week. Some wools continue to go to deposit, but not much.

Flax men are in a squeeze, as the bad weather with heavy rains has brought the linq quite stained into the market. This has brought on many difficulties, and many who had contracts in the cereal refuse to receive same in the deteriorated condition. A lawsuit is springing up about one large contract. Two ships chartered to load flax in Campana some time ago are still at their anchorage, without any prospects of getting full. Several contracts made at the beginning of the season have given rise to serious losses, and others cannot comply with same, in view of the scarcity of the staple. Buyers are now offering 14½ $m/c per arrobe put on board.

The Baltimore entered port yesterday with a full cargo and 25 emigrants from the Rhine provinces; they go up to the Santa Fe colonies where they have friends and relatives. If the country could only get as many Germans as Italian, it would advance as fast as the U. States. The Baltimore leaves on the 26th, she has a full cargo already engaged at 35s and 10 p. cent.

At afterhours there was a sudden turn in the market and National Bank shares rose from 128½ to 129½; the market closed buyers at the latter rate for the end of the month; for end of Feb. 30½. This sudden jump in shares came unexpected and took many unawares. In Cedulas some series A were sold at 102½.

There was no Bank meeting to-day; 6,000,000 m/c were discounted.

The wool purchases in the South Plaza continue to attract attention owing to their importance, and the contrast to South affords when compared with the Once, in the latter market the wool-holders keep back, and the 'artistas' also.

Many people are wondering if the petition of the commercial community with regard to the 'despacho directo' has been lost in the Custom House, as up to the present no answer to same has been either published or drawn up.

The wool men of the Once deprecate the Lord Mayor's view of that plaza as a site for bullock-carts; what they want is a garden, with fountains playing in the centre, to remove the dust that rises inclouds at the east-wind. All the bullock-carts come in by rail; fifty perhaps may have arrived during the season at the most. Lord Mayor Alvear is begged to reconsider the question as the wool men themselves are there who want a paseo in the post-prandial hours of the evening.

Messrs M Billinghurst & Sons, the well known auctioneers, sold off yesterday the 16 lots of the fine Almeyra quinta, occupying half a square in Calles Tucuman, Temple and Ayacucho; the total upset price was $441,806 m/c, but the sale netted 643,500 m/c. We congratulate the auctioneers on the sale.

A sale of 1,000 novillos is reported in the Tandil at 335 m/c each for the Luro saladero.

Telegrams to-day from Concordia state that the Uruguay is rising in a most alarming manner. Happily there is no Hopkins' wind blowing at the mouth of the Plate; the Concordia wharf was reported under water.

The Sales at afterhours were—

September	19,514	15,095

The following figures of Messrs A Bullrich & Co.'s sales during the year 1881 shew the large growth of the auctioneering business in this city:—

Messrs Protheroe Hill & Co. have introduced 200 ostriches from South Africa. The ostrich industry is raising its head in this country very fast.

There are 2,000 navvies working on the Andine extension; they occupy four different encampments, in Alto Grande, in San Luis, and in the Cañada del Valle. The rails are four leagues from Fraga; the provisional bridge on the Rio Quinto has been washed away, and preparations are being made to erect the railway one.

In Cordoba there are 212 cases of machinery in the Central Northern Station to be transported to Tucuman. The sugar crop of the province this year will not be large, and the article is dear up there. Four provinces of the Republic are now growing sugar cane, and it is probable that owing to this fact the sugar produced will be about the same as last year.

Mr E H Oyler has entered the firm of Messrs Lagos MacGregor & Co.

The Club Industrial, not the National Government, insured the Continental Exhibition building. The business was effected by the hands of Sr Da Guillermo Schindlor in the Estrella, Queen, Fenciere, and Transatlantic Companies.

We take the following interesting figures from Mr H Aitgelt's Weekly Review of Agricultural Produce—

"Arrivals of the week—
Wheat ..... 196,724 kilos
Flour 339,868
Maize 74,456
Hay ..... 209 bales
Flax 11,203

Besides there have arrived 2,586 bags of wheat, and 2,703 bags of maize, the weight of which has not yet been determined.

"Wheat—The arrivals during the week have been limited; they amount to 196,724 kilos against 918,217 kilos this time last year, and very probably not enough wheat will arrive during the month for consumption. The millers are falling back on their stock of old flour and are anxious as to the future.

"The advices from Santo Fe are alarming. The colonists hold back and have only made few sales for June and July. These operations should not be countenanced, and the poor millers will suffer thereby. At the same time these sales postpone to an indefinite period the arrivals of wheat and flour from Santa Fe in this Province.

"The heavy rains have interfered with the harvest during the week. The principal sales have been effected with a rise of 15 m/c. over last week's prices. There are buyers in new Costa qualities at 190 m/c. per nine arrobes; sellers ask 200 m/c. A poor Salado quantity of 8½ arrobes fetched 155 m/c. Old Costa kinds have been sold at from 195 m/c. to 180 m/c, according to quantity. Some Azul wheat has been sold at 140 m/c. The market is rising and will maintain this tendency for the moment. We cannot anticipate heavy arrivals before the beginning of February.

"Flour—An important business in old flour was done during the week; the buyer is a heavy firm in Rosario at 25 m/c. per arrobe. The market has followed the impulse and several old lots have been sold at 26 and 27 m/c; at the latter price there are buyers in the market for good brands. The millers of the city have sold flour at 30 and 31 m/c.

"Advices from Santa Fe state that the millers up there will not hear of selling, and many buyers from this market have had to return with empty hands. The market continues firm.

"Maize—No business has been done for export. The new crop promises well.

"Flax—The bad weather continues, and the harvest is at a stand still. Many of the vessels chartered to load the cereal are waiting in vain. Good flax is in demand and 14½ m/c. are offered per arrobe put on board. The quantity of the flax in general is deficient, having been injured by the late heavy rains. The yield of the plantations has also suffered, and the average of 200 to 280 arrobas cannot be expected per square.

"The exports of the week have been:—

The following late news about the Antwerp produce market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date Dec. 15th, 1881, is important:—

Hides—
Good qualities continue in demand and are very steadily held, but secondary parcels and hides turned red by remaining too long in store are taken with some reserve while holders generally are inclined to assist the sale of such when a concession is found necessary for the completion of a transaction. Rather more disposition has been shown to buy during the past few days, especially as far as Saladero cows are concerned, of which we may mention the following sale:

Prosyon, just discharged, 6,597 Uruguay cows 20/25 ko. at fr. 76.—, and 543 24/28 ko. at fr. 81.—.

In England the feeling has been steadier and some business has been completed at 7¾d. ex store for good Uruguay heavy ox. This price comparing favourably with those ruling on our market has provoked the shipment of 2,409 Liebig 25/32 ko. ex-Emblyn from here to Liverpool which are now offered for sale in the latter market.

No business done to arrive.

According to cable advices received from the River Plate killings have commenced on a limited scale. News received by latter report the slaughtering in Buenos Aires and the Banda Oriental as being likely to begin in the first half of the present month and in Entre Rios only past the turn of the year.

Tallow—
No change has occurred since our last. There is no market in the absence of stock and the discouraging news from abroad tends to weaken the feeling. Prices nominal fr.96 to fr.99 for beef and fr.97 to 98 for mutton.

Wool—
The heavy and seasonable rain that fell about the middle of the month has slightly retarded what at one time promised to be an early season. On the 19th inst. the first sale was held by Messrs Mort & Co., who catalogued some 1,800 bales, of which they did not succeed in placing at auction more than 800. As compared with last season's opening rates, prices showed a reduction of from one penny to three half-pence per lb. At the next succeeding sale prices were, if anything, a shade stiffer, when the quality of the lots submitted is taken into account. With few exceptions the wools catalogued were of a dry, harsh, wasty description, worth in the European market, according to latest accounts, say nine pence per lb. One clip, the H over Bolero, well grown, in light condition, a little tender and rather plentifully sprinkled with clover burr, was bought for America, at 12d. Some idea of the state of the market may be formed from the following quotations:—

BUN, 12½d
ET in diamond over W in diamond, 9½d
Narraway, 9½d
Jones over Cobbera, 9½d
Canonbar over East, 9d
BJR, 9d

From the squatter's point of view, the clip does not promise to be either a good or remunerative one, and it is open to doubt whether buyers are getting wools as valuable intrinsically as they are taking to the eye. That the wools so far are very free from grease, admits of no question, but equally certain is it that they are fuzzy, harsh, poorly grown and, in many instances, wasty. The regular buyers have been scarcely so eager as usual, but their place has been amply supplied by an infusion of new blood anxious to do business. At present rates growers evince no great anxiety to sell, and prefer apparently the risk of shipment to the certainty, in many instances, of obtaining the last known London value here.

For shearing and for sheep the weather during the past month has been extremely unfavorable, heavy rains, followed by snow-storms, having been the rule rather than the exception in most districts. There will, however, be an abundant supply of grass to carry stock over the summer.

The list of clearances is very small this month and compares unfavorably with the export figures at the corresponding date last year. 6,054 bales are all that have left the port since the opening of the season, which is therefore 16,641 bales in arrears of the figures given at the end of Oct., 1880.

Sheepskins—
Are selling readily at the following quotations:—
5½d to 6¼d for best.
4½d to 5½d for medium and pelts.
2d to 4d for short-woolled per lb.

Tallow—
Is not plentiful, but has had to submit to a reduction of say £3 per ton, consequent on a similar movement in the home market. Prime mutton is quoted at from £30 to £32 per ton. Beef is firm at £29 to £30 10s per ton.

LONDON AND RIVER PLATE BANK, LIMITED.

The nineteenth annual general meeting of the shareholders in this bank was held yesterday at the City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-Street; Mr. George W. Drabble (chairman of the board of directors) presiding.

Mr George Warden, the secretary, read the notice convening the meeting. The report and accounts were taken as read.

The Chairman said he thought the report spoke for itself, and he felt confident that every shareholders present would give it his full approval. It was quite possible that amongst some of the shareholder expectations of larger figures might have been raised on account of the very encouraging news that had been transmitted from time to time as to the progress, particularly of the Argentine Confederation; but, without denying the truth of these reports—for he could confirm them in every way—they must not lose sight of the fact that the rate of interest prevailing during their financial year had ruled as low, or, perhaps, a little lower than it was during the previous year, and they had had to encounter the same severe banking competition, and, perhaps, still more severe competition than they had had before. It must, therefore, be evident to the shareholders that to present the accounts now submitted they had had to increase their business very materially, for, of course, just as the rate of interest was lower, they must increase the turn-over to increase the profits. The increased business meant also an increased risk; and, therefore, he had viewed with great satisfaction the fact that the wind-up of the accounts had enabled them to present a profit and loss statement showing such a substantial advance. (Hear, hear.) If the shareholders turned to the balance-sheet they would see that his remarks were borne out by the different items in it. The local bills discounted, bills receivable, current accounts, and other securities represented an increase over the year 1880 of no less a sum than £570,000. On the other hand, the bills payable represented an increase of £270,000. The notes in circulation represented an increase of £36,000, and the deposits and amounts due on current accounts, &c., represented, in round figures, an increase of £260,000. As there figures only represented balances, the shareholders would be able to form some idea of the very great increase in the aggregate amount of their business at the head office and the different branches. The gross profit for the year was £144,252, as compared with £125,031, last year, or nearly £20,000 in excess. (Applause.) With regard to the distribution of this amount, it must be evident to them that this very largely increased business could not be met without an increase in the expenses, but that increase had been nothing like the augmentation in the profits. They could not pledge themselves to maintain a low scale of expenses; but every economy was practised consistent with the efficient conduct of the business of the bank. (Applause.) The sum of £8,682 had been written off the bank premises account, reducing the amount of that account to £30,000. He need not tell the shareholders, after the explanations he gave last year, that that reduction was not, perhaps, strictly necessary; but he considered that everything that was done to strengthen the balance-sheet was a most desirable step. (Hear, hear.) Then, in accordance with the pledge given from year to year, they proposed to increase the reserve fund by no less a sum than £25,000, raising the reserve to £175,000, which was, he believed, about the amount at which that fund stood before it became necessary to make that serious appeal to it after his visit to Buenos Ayres. He considered that they could not have too strong a reserve, and he would rather propose smaller dividends and increase the reserve, so that their position might be strengthened in every way, and that in good and in bad times the interests confided to them might be as fully secured and as thoroughly sound as was possible. (Hear, hear.) Therefore he hoped that on future occasions the reserve which was fructifying in their hands might be further added to in the interests of all concerned. Then they proposed to pay a dividend of 4 per cent. and a bonus of 2 per cent., making, with the previous distribution, 10 per cent. for the year, or about 7 per cent. on the present market price of the shares. They would carry forward £8,352, as compared with £4,459 carried forward last year; while instead of a rebate of £17,000, which was the amount carried over as rebate last year, they had set aside £21,000, or an increase of £4,000. The accounts therefore, did not contain a figure which did not show the strength, credit, and security of the bank from every point of view. (Applause.) He would not attempt to predict anything as regards the future; but he thought it was desirable, from time to time, to review the position of the countries where their banking operations were being carried on, and to consider how far they were justified in taking a hopeful view as to the prospects of the bank. As the shareholders were no doubt, aware, the Government of the Argentine Confederation had held a strong position during the whole of the year, and its credit had become every month more consolidated. The value of its stocks showed how its credit was estimated. Measures had been adopted by the Executive Government there and approved by the Congress, which showed a desire on the part of the Government and the residents to increase and develop the resources of the countries. The same remark applied to the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres, which was the chief seat of the bank's operations, where the extension of railway enterprise was particularly noticeable. The agricultural industries of the countries were also largely developed, and it was probable that there would be a large export of wheat from both sides of the River. Another important industry—the manufacture of sugar—was springing up, machinery on an extensive scale having lately been sent out for manufacturing sugar; of which there was a very large consumption in the Argentine Confederation. Flax, linseed, and other articles of that kind all leading to the employment of labour and the encouragement of immigration, were also being cultivated. There was another article of consumption which would probably be a very important feature in the future of those countries, and that was meat. Haslam's processs had successfully established the fact that meat could be brought from Australia and New Zealand to this country in a perfectly sound and fresh condition; but he found that whereas in Australia meat in the carcase cost from 2d. 2½d. per pound, he found upon a careful calculation—taking into consideration the present price of fat stock in the R. Plate countries and deducting from it the value of the skins and hides—that good meat could be purchased in those countries at 1d. per pound. This would, of course, be a great boon to all classes, and would affect most advantageously all the industries out there. It would lead to an improvement of the condition of the stock, and therefore of the wool; and if the importation of meat to this country were successful, it would be of the very greatest importance to them. If the material wealth of the country went on improving, and peace were maintained as it had been for the last year or two, he thought the bank would have a solid future to work upon. (Applause.) Having referred to the excellent services rendered by the officers of the bank at the head office and at the branches, the chairman concluded by moving, 'That the report and accounts be received, adopted, and entered on the minuets.'

Mr, David Howden seconded the motion.

Mr. Hankey having congratulated the directors on the very satisfactory character of the report and accounts, asked whether the bank premises abroad were not worth £70,000 or £80,000, rather than the 30,000 at which they now stood in the books of the bank. He also suggested that the amount written-off the premises' account should be shown in the balance-sheet as an asset, by being added to the reserve.

The Chairman, in reply, said the premises were doubtless of a larger value than £30,000, but he would not like to say that they were worth £70,000; and he considered it desirable that the balance-sheet should only represent in the way of assets those which were really realisable, while everything in the assets should be reduced to its minimum value. (Hear, hear.)

The report and accounts were then unanimously adopted, and the dividend and bonus, making with the interim payment already made, 10 per cent. for the year, was declared, payable, free of income-tax, on the 28th inst.

Mr D, Howden seconded.

The Chairman, after referring, to the valuable services of Mr Sassenberg, the consulting director, having previously done the same as regards the other executive officers in the service, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr Sassenberg, the managers, and staff of the respective establishments of the bank, for the zeal and ability with which they had conducted the affairs of the bank,

Mr Howden seconded the proposition, which was also passed.

On the motion of Mr Cobb, seconded by Mr Taylor, the auditors, Messrs. J. Vanner and W. W. Deloitte, were re-appointed.

On the motion of Mr. Green, seconded by Mr Bentley, a cordial vote of thanks was accorded to the chairman and directors, and the Chairman having briefly acknowledged the compliment, the meeting terminated.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation thus justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleratic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ROUGHING IT IN THE COLONIES.—There can be no doubt that a man has to put up with many little inconveniences when he settles in a new country; some of them arising from 'the necessity of things,' whilst others are the result of his own want of knowledge or foresight. However, if he can secure pure water and good bread he will manage to get along tolerably well. Thanks to the advance of chemical science, this last desideratum is not so difficult to obtain as in times past, for with a good supply of BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER, even Robinson Crusoe himself might have produced the whitest and most palatable of bread, to say nothing of cakes and pastry ad libitum, and would doubtless have ended by opening a pastry-cook's shop upon his desert island. NOTA BENE.—Don't forget to ask your storekeeper to put up a good supply of this valuable article with your groceries. In packets, 1d, and 2d.; boxes, 6d. and 1s. each.
